

Recommended Reads for Year 5 & 6

|   |  |
|---|--|
| A Really Short History of Nearly Everything | Bill Bryson                              |
| A Thief in the Village                      | James Berry                              |
| Arthur, High King of Britain                | Micheal Morpurgo                         |
| Chaucer's Canterbury Tales                  | Marcia Williams                          |
| Classic Poetry                              | Micheal Rosen                            |
| Clockwork                                   | Philip Pullman                           |
| Clown                                       | Quentin Blake                            |
| Cosmic                                      | Frank Cottrell Boyce                     |
| Goldilocks on CCTV                          | John Agard                               |
| Goodnight Mr Tom                            | Michelle Magorian                        |
| Let in the Snow                             | Mandy Coe                                |
| Life Doesn't Frighten Me                    | Mary Angelou                             |
| Maps  | Aleksandra Mizelińska, Daniel Mizeliński |
| Seasons of Splendour                        | Madhur Jaffrey                           |
| Secret Friends                              | Elizabeth Laird                          |
| Skellig                                     | David Almond                             |
| Snow White in New York                      | Fiona French                             |
| The Dreamfighter and other Creation Tales   | Ted Hughes                               |
| The Fire-Eaters                             | David Almond                             |